

Ten things you can do with

Sign In or Sign Up Yahoo!7 Mail

Classif

Ten things you can do with a book

HEATHER ZUBEK, The West Australian
April 12, 2011, 11:56 am

1. You can fall asleep reading a book and not get concussion.
2. You can write "Happy Birthday" on the sleeve of the book. Write on a Kindle and you void the warranty.
3. You experience a book. A Kindle is merely functional.
4. Uncovering lost books is like finding old friends. There are no surprises with Kindles.
5. Books get better with age and use. Kindles need recharging and updates.
6. Read a book in the bath and you could damage one book. Read a Kindle in the bath and your collection of 500 books is gone.
7. Your favourite author can sign your book. They can't sign a Kindle.
8. A house full of books has soul. A house with one Kindle is only a house with one Kindle.
9. Second-hand books are found in treasure troves called Bookshops. Second-hand Kindles will be found in salvage yards.
10. A book means commitment. Kindles are a one-night stand.

Meet local singles on Yahoo!7 Dating

Explore More

Amazon says Kindle users are entitled to e-book refunds

Amazon says new $199 Kindle Fire HD is top seller

Amazon CEO confirms Kindle sold "at cost"

Rowling to write kids' books

SPECIAL PROMOTION

Learn Simple shortcuts the pros use

At Simple, we believe skincare should be simple & easy, no matter what your skin type. Follow the link for tips and tricks from the pros.

Click for Simple How-To gallery

And help say goodbye to spend regrets  Apply now

'The West Australian' is a trademark of West Australian Newspapers Limited 2012. All rights reserved. Advertise with Us Privacy Policy